Live, Laugh, Love

We sing a song based on Lamentations 3:22-24 that says, "the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end, they are new every morning."

- With the start of a new year, I want to:*
- 1) Love deeper—my God, my family, my Christian brothers and sisters, my friends and the lost of the world.
 - 2) Give more freely—to my God, to those less fortunate, to the hurting and to my church family.
 - 3) Laugh more often—with God, with my grandchildren and children, my friends, my family, my church family and my husband.

I want people to know that I love them and that they are important to me. I want to help them. I want to laugh with them. I want to have God-filled joy in my life. I want people to wonder what is going on in my head. I want them to ask because I have something to tell them. I want my laughter and my smile to be contagious.

Thank you, God, that I can start over every day in your mercy.

The above was excerpted from an article by Lisa Robertson, WFR Global Executive Assistant for World Radio.

It very aptly portrays the very thing we are trying to do for 2012. "Bringing lives to the Word by putting life in the Word." That expression of love, care, and joy is very magnetic. It will draw others to you. May we all allow God to work within us to be what He wants us to be.

Opportunities! Grab them when available or lose out!

Linda and Terri are preparing to go to Cambodia to work on the Ship of Life. They will be providing medical needs and spiritual needs to some of the poorest people in the world. We are excited for them as this is a golden opportunity. We know this team effort will be richly rewarded. Their courage, desire and commitment is a blessing to each of us.

We encourage every member to look for and find their "Ship of Life" opportunity in 2012 and pursue it diligently.

Book of Joel

The locusts have come. Every green thing has been eaten up by the swarm. God's spokesman, Joel, uses this natural disaster to convey a dire warning of a far worse catastrophe. Not locusts, but an army from the north will attack Judah. The only hope of escape in this day of the Lord is to repent. "Rend your heart and not your garments" (2:13). If his people will repent, God will send unparalleled blessing instead of devastating judgment. He will judge the nations that hurt his people and bring peace and his own presence to Zion.

Sunrise Creek Devotional: Today at 1:30 is the devotional.

Reaching Out to Others

Please pray for the Ramirez family of Olathe. They were in a car accident over Christmas vacation on their way home from Mexico. The dad and the daughter, Erica, who is a senior in high school are okay. However, the mother is unconscious and had to have her hand amputated. The youngest son, a 4th grader, was killed in the accident, and the 14 year old son, René, who is a classmate of Emily Rowland, has to have surgery on his face. They are all in Albuquerque in a hospital there.
