Living Out Godly Behavior in our Everyday Life

God expects Christians to live by a higher standard. This means that God wants us to be examples of Christ rather than living by the world's standards. Reading our Bible and praying are helpful ways to know God's expectations and live a life focused on God.

Romans 12: 2 - "Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." (NIV)

Taking time to ask how our behavior and appearance are perceived by others is an important part of being a Christian. Everything a Christian does influences what people think of Christians and God. We are a representative of God, and our behavior is part of demonstrating our relationship with Him. Does this mean you will be perfect? No. We all make mistakes and sin. However, it is important to keep striving to walk in Jesus' footsteps as best we can.

Matthew 5:16 - "In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." (NIV)

1 Peter 2:12 - "Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us." (NIV)

Have you been an example of Christ with your words and deeds this past week?

Our New Brother!

Take time to welcome our new brother! We rejoice with the angels in heaven over Billie's decision to be baptized. He was baptized in the Gunnison River in the Black Canyon last Thursday.

Book of Ecclesiastes

The author of Ecclesiastes (traditionally thought to be Solomon) enjoyed power, wealth, and access to all of life's pursuits and pleasures. After experiencing a full measure of life “under the sun”, he declares it all to be futile and unsatisfying. Only as he lives “above the sun” - with his focus on God—does life become meaningful and fulfilling. Ultimate satisfaction comes not from the good things of life but from the Giver of life—the one we are to fear, honor and obey.

Monday Night For The Master: Monday Night For The Master has been suspended until after the holidays.

Travelers: Terri has traveled to Cheyenne and then she is taking her mother-in-law to Hawaii. Brad & Carol are traveling to Oklahoma to spend Thanksgiving with their families. Richard & Carol are traveling to Hobart, Oklahoma this weekend.

Devotional: Today is the devotional at Sunrise Creek.

Wednesday Services: This coming Wednesday will be a devotional instead of classes.

Care Packages: Monica has suggested putting together some care packages for those who are currently undergoing cancer treatment. She has done this before for a friend and it really brightened her day. If any of you would like to help and contribute items here are some ideas: books, gifts (of encouragement and strength) lotions, calming/relaxing type teas (peppermint, chamomile, etc.) , soups/soup mixes, soup mug, coffee mug, candles, lip balm, very soft socks, notepads/pens, hard candies, travel size games/playing cards, puzzle books/pencils. Items can be put in the same box used for the military care packages. Some of our youth got together and made bookmarks to include in the packages. Stop by in the fellowship room and look at the talent demonstrated in the bookmarks. Items need to be at the building by December 4.

Holiday Fun Those wishing to help with a Christmas party on the afternoon of December 18th, bring a sack lunch on the 27th and we will spend the afternoon together planning. A gift exchange ($5.00 limit), games and your favorite holiday treats are some thoughts.

Plans for Thanksgiving?

Anyone who does not have plans for Thanksgiving is invited to Jan and Mike's house. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board.

Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. -Colossians 3:13-14
